

Helen Portal

After law studies, Helen specialised in disability rights through her experience in France with the Defender of Rights and the Council of Disabled Persons on European Affairs.

As advocacy and policy officer at Inclusion Europe, Helen advocates for the rights of persons with intellectual disabilities and their families.